Click HERE to view this deal (you may have to register to view the deal), which lasts for 16 more days. The semifinal games are at 5:30pm and 8:00pm on Friday, November 8, and the final game is on Sunday, November 10 at 4:00pm. The ACC Championships are sure to be some of the best women's college soccer in the nation. Four ACC Teams (Virginia, Florida State, North Carolina, Virginia Tech, and Notre Dame) are ranked top 15 in the NSCAA Coaches poll. If you are playing in the girls' Shootout tournament that weekend, you might be able to get some last minute pointers on Friday night during the semi-finals.

Goals for Girls Soccer Clinic: November 2

Just as many of our teams are using soccer as a platform to raise breast cancer awareness, Goals for Girls is an international initiative of girls helping girls through the game of soccer. The program was founded in 2007, and since then program has used soccer as a platform to help disadvantaged girls across the globe by providing access to health and education programs taught through the game of soccer. The next Goals for Girls campaign will initiative will be in India this winter where young female soccer players will work with girls and young women to promote self-esteem, resiliency, and leadership. Now, any female soccer ages 6-18 has a chance to support this soccer movement through a local Goals for Girls Soccer Clinic held in Chapel Hill on November 2 (3:30pm-6:00pm). All registration fees (i.e., donations) are 100% tax deductible and will go to Goals for Girls. Olympic and World Cup Champions Heather O'Reilly, Carla Overbeck, Wendy Palladino, and Cindy Cone will be on hand to help lead the clinic. For more information about the clinic, please click here to download the flyer.
