CASL Players Honored at RailHawks Game

Many outstanding CASL players were honored at halftime (pictured) of this past Saturday's RailHawks game. They were winners of the 2012-2013 Hamilton Sportsmanship Award. This was the second of two Hamilton nights at the RailHawks this season. This game gave award winners who had conflicts the first night (in May) the opportunity to be recognized for the individual recognition. Each Hamilton Sportsmanship Award winner received a free ticket to the game in addition to their award, commemorative poster, and special magnet, and extended family members were on hand to applaud their child's accomplishment. I saw grandparents, parents, siblings, and friends who all turned up to support their kid – all in the name of good sportsmanship. We encourage you all (parents, players, and coaches) to be good sports this year on and off the field.

CASL Holds First Clinic at Parrish Manor

Parrish Manor

As you may know, CASL has put many more resources into our Community Outreach efforts in order to provide the game to all youth interested, regardless of economic status or ability level. Last Friday, CASL held the first clinic at Parrish Manor for youth who live in the neighborhood. This neighborhood is fortunate to have amazing leadership under owners Charles and Chris Parrish – a dynamic father-son team. They have created an aesthetically pleasing neighborhood with sidewalks, paved streets, a community clubhouse and deck, picnic areas, a fishing pond, playgrounds, a community garden, and a recreation park. Chris is also the founder and President of the Nessie Foundation, Inc., which is a 501c3 non-profit formed to serve at-risk youth and their families in Southeast Raleigh. Through this foundation, the Parrish family is always looking for positive outlets to provide for its neighborhood youth. Conversations about one such opportunity finally came to fruition on Friday night when the recreation field space at Parrish Manor was put to use for some soccer hosted by CASL. More than 40 kids were on hand to play the game of soccer. CASL will be hosting a series of sessions this fall, all on Friday night from 6:00pm-8:00pm. We will surely have pictures to share soon, but until then, I encourage you to volunteer with this outreach effort if you are looking for a productive way to spend your Friday evening!

Name: Cleats
Affiliation: CASL Mascot

If you were at the RailHawks game this weekend or at the Magnificent Mile Race on Sunday, you must have seen Cleats,

CASL's mascot. You may have also seen him at the Komen Race for the Cure this summer or any other CASL sponsored event. Cleats has been a staple of our organization the past few seasons, and is now becoming a staple of our community. If you spot Cleats in the community, be sure to share your photos on Facebook and Twitter and give him a shout-out! #CASL #Cleats
